NOTEWORTHY

Borden Lighting's mantra is "Design, Sustainability and Value." As the only lighting company owned and managed by an architect, design means more to us than most lighting companies. Recently The Architect's Newspaper and ArchNews, the newsletter of the East Bay AIA, had stories that made us proud. The readers of the Architect's Newspaper named Borden Lighting as one of ten lighting companies on their Greatest Hits list. ArchNews announced their Design Awards and we were proud to have provided lighting fixtures for four of the winners.

You can check out other stories about Borden Lighting at our new feature News/Noteworthy which is now on the home page left menubar.
